

Media Release

11 April, 2013

Shenzhen Stock Exchange Hosts the 31st AOSEF General Assembly

The Shenzhen Stock Exchange (SZSE) hosted the 31st General Assembly of the Asian and Oceanian Stock Exchanges Federation (AOSEF) in Shenzhen from April 9th through 11th, 2013. The General Assembly was opened by Song Liping, President and CEO of SZSE. Mr. Chen Dongzheng, Chairman of SZSE, made opening remarks.

Around 50 local and international delegates, including chairmen and chief executives, from 14 exchanges in the Asian and Oceania region gathered together for the meeting. With a focal theme of exploring new dimensions of development, the major agenda topics included contributions exchanges can make to bond markets in Asia, exchange business models from the perspective of demutualization, consolidation, and business domain, and the relationship between foreign investment and globalized exchanges. The 31st General Assembly admitted the GreTai Securities Market as a new member, made amendments to the AOSEF charter, and adopted new internal rules.

In his opening speech, Mr. Chen Dongzheng emphasized the importance of cooperation between and among AOSEF exchanges for common development. Mr. Huseyin Erkan, CEO of the World Federation of Exchanges, talked about cooperation between the two federations.

AOSEF meets annually and the General Assembly is hosted by each member stock exchange in rotation. The previous General Assembly was held in Sydney, Australia. The 32nd AOSEF General Assembly will be hosted by Bombay Stock Exchange and National Stock Exchange of India.

The exchanges which took part in the 31st AOSEF General Assembly in Shenzhen included:

| Exchanges | |
|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| GreTai Securities Market | Bursa Malaysia |
| Hanoi Stock Exchange | National Stock Exchange of India |
| Hochiminh Stock Exchange | The Philippine Stock Exchange |
| Hong Kong Exchanges & Clearing | Shanghai Stock Exchange |
| Indonesia Stock Exchange | Shenzhen Stock Exchange |
| Japan Exchange Group | Taiwan Stock Exchange |
| Korea Exchange | The Stock Exchange of Thailand |
| Observers | |
| China Financial Futures Exchange | AIMS Financial Group |

About AOSEF

The Asian and Oceanian Stock Exchanges Federation (AOSEF) consists of 18 member exchanges in the Asian and Oceanian region. It began informally in 1982 as the East Asian Stocks Exchanges Conference (EASEC) and in 1990, with the adoption of charter, it was formalized and renamed the East Asian and Oceanian Stock Exchanges Federation (EAOSEF). In 2005, with the expansion of its geographical boundaries allowing two Indian stock exchanges to become members, the organization was renamed Asian and Oceanian Stock Exchanges Federation (AOSEF). Today the objectives of AOSEF are to exchange information and to promote mutual assistance among its members with regards to the development of the securities markets in the region. More information about AOSEF can be found at: www.aosef.org.

About SZSE

Shenzhen Stock Exchange (SZSE), established on 1st December, 1990, is one of the two stock exchanges in China's mainland. SZSE is committed to developing a multi-tiered capital market for companies of different business models and at different stages of development. Currently SZSE consists of four market segments: the Main Board, SME Board, ChiNext Market and the OTC market. SZSE has 1538 listed companies (29 March, 2013), 70% of which are SMEs and growth enterprises. SZSE has been actively promoting international communication and cooperation. By the end of 2012, SZSE had signed MOUs with 30 major stock exchanges and institutions worldwide. SZSE is also member of the World Federation of Exchanges (WFE) and an affiliate member of the International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO). For more information about SZSE, please visit www.szse.cn/main/en/.